“OMNNI ASSOCIATES ANNOUNCES OWNERSHIP TRANSITION”

Appleton, Wisconsin—OMNNI Associates, Inc. announced today the completion of an ownership transition bringing new leadership to the firm. The transition occurred following the retirement of Robert Orth, P.E., one of the founding principals of the firm who has contributed to OMNNI Associate’s success for the past 40 years. He will continue to provide consulting expertise to the firm as a Senior Consultant.

The Orth’s interest in OMNNI Associates was purchased by the firm and by the senior management team of:

- Philip Ramlet, P.E., President
- Tim Bolwerk, P.E.–Chief Operations Officer;
- Christine Schulz–Chief Financial Officer;
- Paul Eggen, P.G.–Geotechnical Program Manager;
- Phillip Roberts, P.E.–Transportation Program Manager;
- Larry Miller, RLS–Vice President;
- Robert Givens, P.E, P.H–Municipal Services Program Manager; and
- Aaron Stewart, P.E.–Senior Airport Engineer.

“This change of ownership has been in the planning stages for quite sometime resulting in a seamless transition internally,” said Phil Ramlet, President of OMNNI Associates.

“In addition, we will continue to deliver the same exceptional service that our clients have grown to expect and build upon the trust that OMNNI has earned over the last 40 years. We wish Bob well in retirement and look forward to using his expertise on complex projects.”

Founded in 1968, OMNNI Associates is dedicated to providing engineering consulting services to public and private sector clients. Headquartered in Appleton, Wisconsin, the firm’s services include engineering, architectural, environmental and planning services.
